WHAT TO DO WITH PEARY

Washington, Oct. 1.—The navy department is uncertain yet what action it will take in the matter of extension of leave of absence of Commander Robert D. Peary, who has been so much away from the department service during his polar explorations. A problem now confronting the department officials, is just what assignment should be made him, or what to do in the matter of leave, if wanted beyond the time covered in his previous application.

REPUBLICAN STATE COMMITTEE

Cook of Concord is Chairman, Musgrave of Hanover Secretary

Concord, Oct. 1.—The recently elected Republican state committee met at Union hall Friday evening for organization.

Chairman Oscar C. Young called to order and in the absence of Secretary Harry J. Brown, called the roll which showed seventy-one members present in person or by proxy, the latter number being but few. Several members came in after the roll was completed.

Before calling for the election of officers, Judge Young expressed his appreciation of the kindness and full cooperation of every member of the committee throughout the last campaign and later he was extended an unanimous vote of thanks for his efficient service as head of the committee on motion of former Governor McLane.

On motion of Congressman F. D. Currier, Edmund S. Cook of Concord was chosen chairman of the committee for the ensuing two years.

In taking the chair Mr. Cook voiced his full appreciation of the honor and promised every effort in his power for a party victory in November.

Frank A. Musgrave was elected secretary on motion of Robert E. Faulkner of Keene. As Mr. Musgrave was not present, Robert W. Upton of Bow was elected secretary of the meeting on motion of R. W. Pillsbury of Londonderry.

William F. Thayer of Concord was re-elected treasurer on motion of Robert P. Bass.

As no nomination for assistant secretary being made, Allen Hollis of Concord moved the choice of such an official be left with the chairman.

Congressman Currier questioned if an assistant secretary had served a useful purpose in the campaigns in which there had been such an official, and called upon for an opinion. Judge Young concurred. The motion was withdrawn but was later renewed and passed.

The committee then separated into county delegations to nominate members of the executive committee with the following selections: Albert S. Weatherell, Exeter; Edward E. Rice, New Durham; Stephen S. Jewett, Lancaster; A. Crosby Kenneth, Conway; Frank S. Streeter, Concord; John McLane, Milford; Frank L. Downs, Manchester; Robert E. Faulkner, Keene; Winston Churchill, Cornish; George H. Adams, Plymouth; Oliver H. Toothaker, Berlin.

After formally electing the nominees thus made the meeting adjourned.

It is understood that a speaking campaign will be inaugurated at once, it being the desire of party members in the several sections of the state to have meetings for the discussion of the platform declarations. Although the committee is just organized, the request of Milford people to Candidate Bass to address a rally there next Monday evening will be granted. He will be accompanied by Congressman Currier.

"This trip," the dispatch says,

"probably will be made Oct. 21 and 22. Early in November he will start for Iowa to make two campaign speeches just before election. He also has promised to go to Ithaca, N. Y., for a day's tour of abandoned farms."

The fact that the former president and world's figure will come to New Hampshire in the interest of Mr. Bass will be pleasing news to every loyal Republican.

Among the early callers by invitation at Oyster Bay after Colonel Roosevelt's memorable hunting trip to Africa were Mr. Bass and Col. Winston Churchill of Cornwall, the author. Mr. Bass and Colonel Churchill were at Oyster Bay and dined with the former president one day last June.

Accident at Opening of Vanderbilt Automobile Races

New York, Oct. 1.—One dead, ten injured and many other auto crashes marked the opening of the Vanderbilt cup race today. Spectators were the victims. A mad rush of thousands of autos to the motor parkway over on Long Island was responsible for the accidents.

Before daylight a big touring car, driven by Ferdinand D'Zihba, New York, manager for the Pope-Hartford Automobile Company, and containing his wife, a young woman and five other passengers, crashed into a telephone pole on the old Wheatley Hills road, three miles from the cup course, and was wrecked.

D'Zihba lost his life. All the others

The race was won by Grant of Boston.

ROOSEVELT TO SPEAK IN THIS STATE

Manchester, Oct. 1.—The Union this morning publishes the following:

Former President Theodore Roosevelt, who has just returned to his home at Oyster Bay from the convention at Saratoga, loaded with additional honors in his famous fight with the Old Guard of New York, will come to New Hampshire late in October and make addresses in the interest of Robert P. Bass of Peterborough, nominee for governor.

While his itinerary for New Hampshire has not been given out it is believed that he will speak in Manchester and Concord and possibly in one or more of the big centers of the state.

A dispatch from Oyster Bay says that in the latter part of October Colonel Roosevelt will go to Massachusetts to help Senator Henry Cabot Lodge in his campaign for re-election and will then proceed to New Hampshire and speak for Mr. Bass.

"This trip," the dispatch says, "probably will be made Oct. 21 and 22. Early in November he will start for Iowa to make two campaign speeches just before election. He also has promised to go to Ithaca, N. Y., for a day's tour of abandoned farms."

Twenty People Killed at Destruction of The Los Angeles Times

Los Angeles, Oct. 1.—An explosion that shook the city for miles around and took a toll of fully twenty lives completely destroyed the Times Publishing Company building, at First and Broadway, in which is located the Los Angeles Morning Times, at one o'clock this morning.

According to the police, several of whom were entering the police station three hundred feet away when the explosion occurred, there was a series of four or five distinct shocks in rapid succession. With the third explosion the interior of the building was completely destroyed and the flames shot skyward from within the walls. No one who was within the building at the time escaped injury. Wounded by the score were hurriedly carried to the receiving hospital at Central station.

According to testimony of those in the building the fire started with a terrific explosion in the small alley which runs alongside the Times building.

The chink which was stored in the basement was shot clear over the surrounding buildings.

Lieutenant Sebastian, in command of the central station, declared in an official statement that there was no way in which he could arrive at any definite solution of the origin of the explosion other than from the direction and force.

W. G. Furman, a telegraph operator said: "Everybody in the building had been smelling gas all night, and I believe that the fire was caused from an explosion of gas."

TRIED TO SCARE WITH A BOMB

PLACED IT OUTSIDE PALMER
PALACE IN CHICAGO.

Chicago, Sept. 30.—After placing a bomb beside the residence of Mrs. Palmer and cutting his coat into shreds with a butcher knife and piercing his skin, Fred C. Wahlemeyer, 26 years old, attempted last night to gain entrance to the mansion. He was arrested.

Wahlemeyer demanded an audience with Mrs. Palmer, but the watchman summoned the police. Wahlemeyer at first told of having seen another man placing the bomb at the side of his house and of struggling with him. Later, however, the prisoner confessed to having put the explosive there himself and to having cut his clothes to bear out his narrative.

Mrs. Palmer was at home at the time and the whole household was thrown into excitement by the proximity of death of injury from the bomb.

Wahlemeyer was questioned for hours by the police but refused to explain his motive.

The police announced they would question Mrs. Palmer in regard to reports that she had received threatening letters, in the effort to discover the man's reason for the act.

The police are proceeding on the theory that he thought to gain a reward for having "saved" the house and its occupants from "some mysterious bomb thrower," and that his mutilation of his clothes was to substantiate this claim.

Later Wahlemeyer's mother and sister were found at their home. They declared that the young man suffers from an aggravated form of hypochondria, amounting to dementia at times. This, the police stated after the interview, probably accounts for Wahlemeyer's actions last night.

The Monday Club will hold the first meeting of the season on Oct. 13 with Mrs. Addie B. Brown.

The Experience given by the members of the Christian Endeavor society on last Friday evening was well attended and a very satisfactory sum realized.

Rev. Edgar Warren and family arrived in town Wednesday and will soon be settled in their former home. Twelve ladies from the Woman's Missionary auxiliary in town attended the county meeting of the Women's Board of Missions at North Hampton on Wednesday. The address by Miss Ellen M. Blakely, of Marash, Turkey, was a very interesting informal talk which gave the hearers a great insight into the work being done by the missionaries and teachers. Miss Blakely is president of the girls college in Marash. The school last year registered 118 pupils.

AGAIN WIN PRIZE

HANDTUB EUREKA GETS
FOURTII MONEY AT THE ROCHESTER FAIR,

The Franklin Pierce Veteran Firemen association with their handtub Eureka won fourth money, $50, at the playout at the Rochester fair on Friday.

The Pierce crew played 161 feet, 5 inches, which, considering the conditions, was a good throw. First money was won by the Vixen of Berwick, and their second handtub, the Triumph, took third money. The winning throw was 171 feet. The playout was with a heavy quartering wind, almost head on, and the Vixen getting a tail in the wind got a stream that took the first money.

The Pierce crew arrived back from Rochester fair in the evening and before returning to their quarters held a short parade about the city with their drum corps and a liberal display of red fire.

The scores of all the handtubs in the playout were:

Vixen, Berwick, Me., 171:11 1/2.
T. W. Lane, Manchester, 164:07 1/4.
Triumph, Berwick, Me., 162:04 1/2.
Bureka, Portsmouth, 161:06.

Uncle Sam, Manchester, 160:01 1/2.
Red Jacket, Cambridge, Mass., 159:
08 1/2.

Citizen, No. 5, South Berwick, Me., 152:02 1/2.

Torrent, Rochester, did not hit water.

The judges of the playout were: Chief Engineer George E. Vixen of Dover, Chief A. E. Guernsey of Sanford, Me., O. P. Stone of Manchester, former Chief H. A. Marden of Portsmouth and former Chief W. A. Small of Newmarket. The timekeeper was former Chief George S. Aldrich of Somersworth.

PEOPLES' OPINIONS

The Chandler Specific
The Honorable William E. Chandler (who has only himself to blame for not being in the United States Senate today) contributes a column, by more, of fine type to the Manchester Union. In order to bewail the perverse and mistaken behavior of the committee on platform, at the state convention, for not making all hands swallow his patent medicine to cure corruption in the election of United States senators. Mr. Chandler's nibble pen is always interesting. This time, his formidable string of reasons, and the picture that he paints of the awful crookedness attending the present method of getting a man into the north end of the Capitol, at Washington, fail to convince our stubborn and darksome mind.

Mr. Chandler, who knows all the tricks of the trade would have the people turn out, and vote for the several candidates at the polls. Aspirants for the office are to travel over the state, soliciting votes—the best follow in the use of his tongue is to come out ahead. Should every state resort to this simple process, the senate would be full of silver-tongued orators—all talk and no work.

Mr. Chandler's idea is that as soon as his remedy (warranted to cure) is applied the Boston and Maine railroad, and other forms of wickedness, will retire into the background. No money will be used, when these rival candidates are running, and all will be purity and sweetness. Doubt it, William!

A hearty appetite, with thorough digestion, and without the slightest discomfort or misery of the stomach, is waiting for you as soon as you decide to try Pape's Bypspsia.

This cleared up the case to the satisfaction of the girl's parents, who were really afraid that she had been killed.

HAMPTON

Charles F. Adams and Hugh Brown attended the Republican state convention held at Concord.

Joseph Durant and family on Tuesday moved into their residence on High street and Albert Church and family took possession of their new quarters on the same day.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Ross spent Monday and part of Tuesday in Boston.

Rev. D. H. Adams has been confined to bed the past week by ill-tors from each state shall be chosen by the legislature thereof." This means that the legislature shall exercise its own judgment-free and untrammeled. Where does the right come from that authorizes a legislature of today fix upon conditions that shall bind, as with an iron clasp, the legislature of two years hence?

The Democratic platform demands the election of senators by popular votes. Our opponents demand an assortment of reforms—their specialty is demanding—never mind what, so long as it appears to be superficially popular. But the Republican party of New Hampshire is not yet ready to take to this absurdity in the election of an United Slated senator.

For illustration, look at Oregon, where a Republican legislature, like puppets, were compelled to vote for a Democrat who is now their dependency in the U. S. Senate. And just think of poor Arkansas! Jeff Davis is his name. Nice method, isn't it? Works beautifully!

No, Mr. Chandler. We admire your ability and we like you personally—no better man lives; but on one special line of reasoning we are not with you. You recommend La Follette as the Republican candidate for the Presidency.

William, your case is incurable!

WINN GIRL IN LYNN

LOCATED BY THE POLICE AT THE HOME OF HER SISTER IN THAT CITY.

Miss Blanche Winn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. I. Winn of Little Harbor road, who has been missing from her home since Sept. 18, has been located by the police in Lynn, where she is with her sister.

Mrs. Winn, who was employed as a clerk in a local store, left her home for her work, and the last seen or her by her parents was crossing the cemetery. When she did not come home that night they became greatly worried and after another day's absence, notified the police, and her parents have feared that she might have committed suicide or met with foul play.

Deputy Hurley has been at work on the case, and on Friday after he had almost given up hopes of getting any clue, received a letter with a Portsmouth postmark, but dated last Monday, and had gone to her sister's. She was located with her sister, but failed to give the police any reason why she had run away from home, but promised to write her mother a letter and tell all of the story.

This cleared up the case to the satisfaction of the girl's parents, who were really afraid that she had been killed.

CADETS TELL ABOUT LONGAN

"Cussed Out" One of the Best Men In First Class

DOUBTED ANOTHER'S WORD

Grievance Against West Point Officer Stated in Confidential Letter From One of Those Affected—First "Silence" Spontaneous and Not the Result of Conspiracy, It Is Stated—Justice Expected From Barry

Baltimore, Oct. 1.—The exact statement of the cadets' side of the existing trouble at West Point military academy, as a consequence of which the entire corps is under restrictions, was given in a confidential letter from one of the cadets to a friend in this city, who said:

"The cadets allege that Captain Longan started out at West Point by saying: 'This corps has gone to hell make 'em buck up.'

"The trouble was cumulative. First, on the target range, though it is by order that the cadets, as a protection from the concussion of the guns, put cotton in their ears, Longan accused them of stuffing their ears with cotton so that they would not hear his commands. The men were surprised, but said nothing.

"Second, the cadets say that he 'cussed out' one of the finest men in the first class.

"Third, when Cadet Burt, first classman, returned from his brother's funeral, he himself having appendicitis at the time, he went twice to Longan's office to report. Each time Longan was absent at the officers' club. Accordingly, Cadet Captain Bradley of the corps, officer of the day, and next in command, inspected Burt's baggage, took his money and contraband and sent him to the hospital. Next day Burt was operated upon and was also reported three times by Longan. Bradley told Longan the circumstances, but the captain would not believe him and started in on a tirade against Burt.

"One of the cadets 'visited' across the hall in the barracks. Longan thought, erroneously, that it was a first class man, whereupon he reported the wrong man. The first class man explained in writing that the report was a mistake. Longan, calling him up, said: 'I don't believe what you say in your explanation. You've got to prove your statements.' One inviolable rule of West Point is that when a cadet gives his word of honor it is always taken without question.

"The final grievance was when Longan made 'iron birds' walk in the rain. Under this form of punishment cadets have to walk with their guns two hours on Wednesday afternoon and four hours on Saturday afternoons. It is the immemorial custom they can walk on the steep of the barracks when it rains. Longan lined them out in the downpour, he being under cover, dry and smoking a pipe.

"The first 'silence' was spontaneous and fairly without the element of pre-meditated conspiracy. The men simply refused to eat or speak a word while Longan was in the room. It was wrong, insubordinate, but human. It was a tacit rebellion against what the cadets felt to be tyranny. The men do not regret their action. Their attitude is that their code has been broken and their word questioned.

"If every cadet is called before the court of Inquiry and asked if the above statements are true, he will answer affirmatively, though not a man of them has yet consented to say more to the court than 'We have formed a dislike for this officer.'

"The men resented Longan's explanation that he was a new man and that the cadets wanted to break him in, and they feel that he has not made a correct statement, but they have great confidence in the justice and common-sense of General Barry, the superintendent, who they believe will put a different light upon the situation within another week."

THIRTY DAYS TO SETTLE

Watertown's Tax Collector Said to Be Short in His Accounts

Watertown, Mass., Oct. 1.—Hisses and cheers punctuated a verbal battle over the question as to whether the former tax collector, Charles A. Raymond, should be afforded an opportunity to settle with the town his alleged shortage of $1726.02 without legal action being taken at the town meeting last night.

Raymond, before the town meeting, placed in the hands of the selectmen a certified check for $777.66 to cover the amount of deficit in his accounts from Sept. 6, 1909, to the time he was removed from office.

A motion was finally adopted, by a vote of 266 to 172, that Raymond be given thirty days in which to settle with the town, and that in case he fails to do so the selectmen are authorized to bring suit against him or his bondsmen.

THREE BEATINGS WITH RUBBER HOSE

Hartford Boy's Charges Against School Authorities

Hartford, Oct. 1.—Startling statements made by a weakened and battered boy 11 years old, Raymond Prunham, that he had been beaten with a rubber hose in the Meadow district school have induced the authorities to order a right investigation. The boy is under the care of a physician. His body is bruised and discolored and he suffers much pain.

The boy's mother told the authorities that her son staggered into his home after the beating. His condition was so serious that Dr. O'Connor was summoned.

When the boy told O'Connor that his bruises and contusions were due to three beatings received at the school for alleged infractions of the rules, O'Connor notified President Lowe of the Humane society of Hartford, who brought the matter to the attention of the school committee.

Prosecuting Attorney Fuller has also been notified and will examine the teachers and principal of the school.

DENIES BROKEN TROTH

Peabody Says He Will Wed Miss Deacon Some Time in January

Boston, Oct. 1.—George L. Peabody is quoted as making denial of the statement that his engagement with Miss Edith Deacon, one of the three Deacon sisters, has been broken.

The rumor that the relations between the two had been severed started in Newport. In denying the report Peabody is alleged to have said:

"The rumor of a broken engagement between Miss Deacon and myself is absolutely incorrect. The wedding is postponed, as stated in the newspapers some time since, but it will take place next January."

NEVADA CLEANING UP

Every Gambling House in the State Must Now Close

Carson City, Nev., Oct. 1.—For the first time in fifty years the doors of gambling houses in this state have been barred by the law.

Under the recent action of the legislature of Nevada gambling in this state is prohibited on and after today.

A decision rendered by Attorney General Stoddard places whilst, bridge whilst, five hundred and all other card games played for money, property or the representative of value, under the law. Slot machines also are banned.

State Chairman Will Lead Empire State Democrats

CONWAY IS RUNNING MATE

Platform Declares For Home Rule For Cities, Sovereign State Rights, Downward Revision of Tariff, Income Tax and Popular Election of United States Senators—"New Nationalism" as Advocated by Roosevelt Condemned in Special Plank

Rochester, N. Y., Oct. 1.—John A. Dix of Washington county, chairman of the Democratic state committee, was nominated for governor on the Democratic ticket last night following a conference of leaders, while 400 delegates of the state convention waited two hours in their seats for the formation of the slate.

The chief cause of delay lay in the difficulty of filling second place. Dix had been chosen for the nomination for governor an hour before and the other places on the ticket had been settled to the apparent satisfaction of those who gathered in the rooms of Charles F. Murphy, the Tammany leader, early in the evening.

The question of Dix's running mate and some lingering doubt as to whether Martin H. Glynn of Albany would accept a renomination for comptroller still kept the conferees away from the hall and delayed its opening.

John A. Dix yielded to the earnest solicitation of the leaders and agreed to run at 7:45. The rest of the slate was speedily arranged and announced to the group waiting outside the conference room at the Seneca hotel.

The full ticket is as follows: Governor, John A. Dix of Washington county; lieutenant governor, Thomas F. Conway; secretary of state, Edward Lazansky; comptroller, William Sohmer; state treasurer, John J. Kennedy; attorney general, Thomas J. Carmody; state engineer and surveyor, John A. Denza; associate judge of the court of appeals, Frederick Collin.

Edwin M. Shepard was the first of the candidates for the nomination for governor to abandon his own claims in favor of Dix. Earlier in the day Dix had made it a condition of his acceptance that all the other candidates should promise him their support. From how many he received this pledge could not be ascertained.

The platform presented to the convention pledges the party to the preservation of the "old nationalism." It condemns all attacks upon the supreme court of the United States. It declares for sovereign state rights, "for the largest possible measure of home rule for all cities of the state."

It declares that the Payne-Aldrich tariff law is a "breach of faith" by the Republican party and responsible for the high cost of living. Only a downward revision of the tariff, it holds, can the cost of living be reduced.

It charges the Republican party with extravagance, and pledges the Democratic party to retrenchment.

It pledges the party to a thorough investigation of all official wrongdoing that the guilty may be punished and business relieved of blackmail.

It declares in favor of state-wide primaries to insure to the people the right to elect candidates and make nominations for public offices.

It favors the enactment of such measures as will compel the personal registration of voters throughout the entire state.

The platform declares for popular election of United States senators, for an income tax, and for a parcel post, for the preservation of water power for all the people, for forest reserve, for "reasonable regulation by the state of public service corporations."

The new nationalism plank closes the document. It is as follows:

"Lastly, we solemnly declare our inflexible opposition to the so-called 'new nationalism.' Its inventor put this forward as if it were progress, while in reality it is sheer reaction to tyrannical methods long ago shaken off by the free peoples of the world, oftentimes at cruel cost in treasure and blood. The settlers of our country fled from Europe to escape it. Whatever advance its adoption would bring is advance toward socialism."

Dix a Cornell Man

John A. Dix is 50 years old and was born in Glens Falls, N. Y. He received his early education in home schools and was graduated from Cornell university in 1882. His business career he began as a member of the firm of Reynolds & Dix, marble dealers, and later he was associated with a lumber firm. In 1889 he married Miss Gertrude Thompson, the daughter of a lumber merchant.

In politics Dix first became prominent as chairman of the Democratic county committee of Washington county, a position which indirectly led to his forming a county chairman's organization, in which he strove for more power for the chairman as against the state committee.

Two years ago, with Lewis S. Chamberlain as the head of the ticket, Dix was the Democratic nominee for the Lieutenant governorship, but the ticket was defeated.

In company with the correspondents of the Utica Telegram company, the New York World and the New York Sun, Dix, engaged in his duties, was watching the police and rioters from a motor car, when the newspaper party was set upon by the police and painfully injured.

Seemingly without provocation, the police charged with sabres, and the newsmen were saved from further injury only by flight to the nearest first-aid station. R. Seymour, the British charge d'affaires, has received, sympathetically, a protest from the three other newspaper men, who are British subjects. He now awaits instructions from London. Seymour and Hill conferred on the matter yesterday afternoon.

It is assumed that the foreign office will act promptly. Herr von Jagow, president of the Berlin police, appears to take a cynical view of the affair. Nevertheless it is plain that the correspondents were attacked ruthlessly. While one of the four called out that they were representatives of the press, another held up in plain view of their assailants a police pass showing that their presence on the scene was authorized.

The only explanation that Von Jagow has offered is that the police acted upon the order of some unknown bystander, a sort of "Captain Coopenick." Americans will remember "Captain Coopenick," or properly William Volgt, as the German shoemaker who was deported from New York last spring after the authorities had discovered his record of ten years in jail.

Four years ago Volgt, pretending to be a captain of the Grenadiers of the Guard, picked up a squad of German soldiers and leading them into Coopenick stole $1000 from the town hall. Keach, aged 58.

Friends of Keach thought so much of him that while he was away on his honeymoon they decorated the doorway of his store with all kinds of things, including printed signs, old bottles, horseshoes and sunflower plants.

"I am willing to give my young wife a good home," said Keach, "but she must live with me in my house. She isn't going to live with her folks. I didn't marry her family, and the only member of it I intend to support is herself."

NAVAL ESTIMATES CUT

Appropriation of $128,300,000 For the Coming Year Is Cut

Washington, Oct. 1.—The total estimates for the appropriations necessary for the naval service during the next fiscal year are announced to be $128,300,000. This stands against appropriations of $137,913,000 for the fiscal year ended last July and $132,334,000 for the present fiscal year.

Besides the two battleships and two colliers already announced as the naval building program for next year, there will be several other vessels of minor class asked for, including two sea-going tugs of a type better than the present Patuxent and Patapsco. There may be some supplemental estimates submitted later on.

BILLS SHOCK OLD LADIES

Paste Newspapers Over Lower Limbs In Pictures of Dancers

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Oct. 1.—Opposite the Old Ladies' Home in this city is a dead wall, which is used to advertise attractions at some of the local theatres. Yesterday a bill poster put up a number of posters of ballerina dancers clad in gaudy and scant attire. The inmates of the home, who saw them from their windows, were indignant.

They held a consultation and then resolved on action. They procured a number of newspapers, and with paste and not made their way to the opposite side of the street and covered the lower limbs of the dancers, and were much pleased with their work.

Mrs. Sommers sued for $3840, which amount she claimed her husband lost in gambling on the races.

Sommers testified he had lost an average of $10 a day with the handbook keeper for six months.

Sultan of Sulu Will Feel Happier When in His Native Land

Washington, Oct. 1.—The Sultan of Sulu is getting homesick. Also he is surprised at the high cost of living in this country. He is ready to go back to his own sun-kissed realm with the money he has left.

"Just to think," said his secretary, "I will take up nearly two months going as fast as we can to get back home."

SOME WAR CLOUDS

War clouds are again hanging over the old world.

This time Germany and England are not going to fight—neither are Germany and France—if the "ales" are to be credited. Turkey and Greece, however, are reported to be on the verge of conflict. The "Young Turks" now in control of the Ottoman empire, seem filled with the disposition to get out and fight somebody. That is publican legislature, and nominated us early for going to war as has existed for half the wars known to the civilized world's history, so the war may be likely to come.

There is one great obstacle to the fighting ambition of the "Young Turks," and that is the lack of money.
It costs money to go to war in these days, and their national credit is poor.
A war cloud of a different type is hanging over China. An internal mob like uprising is threatened, such an uprising as would be a practical repetition of the "Boxer" riots, or rebellion.
When a stolid race like the Chinese do get into that kind of activity, they are liable to make the French revolution seem, by comparison like a Sunday school picnic.

It may be the United States turn next. We better be prepared, and also keep up our policy of encouraging international arbitration.

BIRDSEYE VIEWS

London a year ago introduced the novelty of a hotel where tips of every kind were prohibited. It still operates with every room occupied and its dining halls filled. It is complete success financially. That we understand, what hotels are conducted for.
Then in this case, at least, the elimination of the tip seems to be both safe and profitable. Evidently it is possible to get all the "help" necessary to keep the institution going.

Pellagra appears conspicuously in the government's mortality record for the year 1909, 116 fatal cases being reported, though previous to 1908 there is recorded only a single death in the latter year twenty-three fatal cases were returned. It is improbable, of course, that the figures demonstrate a unique outbreak of the disease within the past two years. Formerly the system of securing reports was not so accurate, and the disease itself was not so readily recognized as now. Infantile paralysis was the cause of 569 deaths widely distributed —an astonishing number, although narrowly restricted epidemics have been recorded in previous years. It is noted, with what significance is not explained, that this disease "does not seem particularly to affect the large cities of one hundred thousand and over." Hydrocephalus and leprosy are other unusual diseases which figure in the national registration; the former with fifty-five fatalities, the latter with nine.

It is an interesting fact that Theo-odore Roosevelt is the only president within the last twenty-five years who had no part in a tariff bill. Cleveland had to deal with the Mills bill, McKinley the Harrison bill, Cleveland in his second administration, the Wilson bill, McKinley the Dingley bill and Taft the Payne-Aldrich bill.

AMONG OUR EXCHANGES

For Development of New Hampshire

The next session of the legislature will provide profitable work for the much abused labor commission in exploiting the manufacturing opportunities and waste water powers, of which nearly every township in the state has one or more of some value. New Hampshire might easily provide a home for many small diversified industries that would prove a vast benefit to the state, were the locations exploited. Secretary Bachelder, of the state board of agriculture, has shown he way.—Exeter News-Letter.

Will Vote Republican Ticket

Thousands of Democrats in the coming election will undoubtedly vote for the Republican candidate for governor. They are perfectly logical in so doing and can accomplish vastly more forward the principles for which they stand, by thus voting, than by supporting their nominee. Robert P.
Bass stands for the vital principles on which Mr. Carr made his campaign two years ago and which he no less loudly proclaims today. Mr. Bass brought out his battle in the primaries in those issues and won by a vote of two to one. He is as free from railroad or other corporate domination as Mr. Carr or any other man can possibly be. Nobody can take any exception to his personality or force of character to fight for the causes he has espoused. This fact, we believe, every fair minded Democrat will readily admit.

Moreover, with Mr. Bass in the governor's chair, these measures of progress which he advocates can much more easily be effected into law than with his Democratic opponent as chief executive, granting that the latter is no less zealous and honest.

With a Democratic governor, it would be an easy matter for the corporate interests to get up a political dead lock out of the situation, whereby nothing could be done, by the playing of party politics. With a Republican governor, backed up by a Republican legislature, and nominated

AFTER THE VISIT

Come again to the place
Where your presence was as a waltz that swims
Down drowsy way whose ascent bu-toms
The bloom on the fairer's face.

Come again with the feet
That were light on the lawn as a blissit-down bell,
And those mute ministrations to one
and to all,
Beyond the tongue's saying sweet.

Until then the faint scent
Of the bordering flowers swam unheeded away,
And I marked not the change in the changes of day
As the cloud shadows came and went.

Through the dusk corridors
Your walk was so soundless I did not know
Your form from a phantom's long ago
Said to glide on the ancient floors.

Till you drew from the shadow
And I saw the great luminous living eyes
Regard me in fixed inquiring wise, Even as those of a soul that weighed.

Scarce consciously
The eternal question of what Life was
And why we were there, and what sad, strange laws...
Made us crave that which could not be!
Thomas Hardy in the Spectator.

Portsmouth needs some more young blood—men that will work in harmony for the upbuilding of this fine old city.

There is immediate need of two hundred good homes and the removal of two hundred old shacks.

There is a steady demand for good rents. Yesterday eight people called at the Herald's office to inquire for rents, and a half dozen asked for the first refusal of a tenement that was to be vacated a month later. Portsmouth should encourage the building of new homes for many of the people that are moving here.

There have been all kinds of rumors in circulation here during the past week regarding the sale of this and that piece of real estate, but in every case the stories have been without any foundation. The sales do not appear to have been of any great benefit to the business community, with the exception of one sale where the landlord has effected many improvements. What Portsmouth needs is two or three good up to date business blocks. The sale of a piece of property as mere speculation is not of any benefit, excepting to the one individual who gets the money.
Let some of our young men help boom
Portsmouth by building an up to date block.

Portsmouth must get in the push and profit by the new hustle that is going to take place in the upbuilding of the Boston and Maine railroad in this territory. Read this from the Boston News Bureau, and then see if Portsmouth is not in a position to get much out of this movement:

Pres. Mellen of the Boston and Maine is up against a pretty stiff proposition in his endeavor to bring that property to a New Haven standard.

Brought up on the Boston and Lowell, Mr. Mellen has always been a great believer in the future of New England, and no man has ever had greater faith in the future of eastern New England and the Boston and Maine road. Compared with last year the Boston and Maine has an increased wage account of $2,700,000, which means that with the continuation of present dividends Boston and Maine must show a deficit to its stockholders for some years.

President Mellen believes that within ten years he can double the Boston and Maine business and bring forth fair returns upon all the New Haven investment therein and the millions of new capital that must be put in to expand the business. Before the New Haven road makes its investment in Boston and Maine secure, there will be 100,000,000 people in the United States, most of whom will be looking with longing eyes for a summer taste of the New England sea-coast and her inland summer mountain resorts.

The great problem, however, will be how to make Maine and the Provinces beyond—for Mr. Mellen is far-sighted—attractive in its resorts, hotel accommodations, boarding houses and food supplies.

Begun with the top of Mount Washington Mr. Mellen will see to Local business men and the citizens generally are forced to admit that the Herald's claim as to the future of the Portsmouth navy yard, and what it means to Portsmouth, is now being realized. The Herald maintains that Portsmouth's future lies in the upbuilding of this navy yard, and it booyes all to help in the movement.

There is much to be done and there is much being done in the direction of advancing the interests of the yard.

Portsmouth theatre-goers are certainly being favored with many fine attractions this far this season, and there are more to follow. It promises to be a banner year for good ones.

OLDEST ODD FELLOW

Daniel Mason of This City Passes His 89th Birthday

Daniel Mason, one of the oldest, if not the oldest Odd Fellow in the state, on Friday observed his 89th birthday. He is as well preserved as many men 20 years his junior and can be seen almost daily enjoying a walk.

He was born in Rye, Sept. 30, 1821, but his parents moved to this city when he was only a year and a half old.

When he was 14 years old he began to learn the carpenter's and joiner's trade.

In 1842, having finished his apprenticeship, he went to Boston, where he remained until the following year, when he returned to this city and entered the employ of George Raynes, who carried on a large shipbuilding yard. There Mr. Mason remained for 10 years, being engaged chiefly in making models and molds.

In 1855 Mr. Mason started a plane and saw mill, retiring about 15 years ago, when he disposed of his interests to the Portsmouth milling company.

He has been married and has two children living. Hartley W. Mason of York Harbor and Miss Theresa Mason of Buffalo.

Mr. Mason takes a deep interest in secret societies and became a member of Silvan Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Boston, Sept. 28, 1842, and was transferred to Piscataqua Lodge of this city when that lodge was instituted in 1841. He is also a member of Strawberry Bank encampment, Canion Senter, Patriarchs Militant, and Union Rebekah Lodge. In Masonry he is a member of St. Andrews' Lodge, A. F. and A. M., Washington chapter, Davenport council, DeWitt Clinton Commandery, K. T., as well as a 32d degree Mason. He is also one of the oldest members of Damon Lodge, Knights of Pythias.

In politics Mr. Mason was for many years a stanch democrat, but of late years has been an independent.

JUST IN TIME

Some Portsmouth People May Wait
Till It's Too Late

Don't wait until too late.
Be sure to be in time.
Just in time with Kidney Pills
Means curing the back
Before backache becomes chronic;
Before serious urinary troubles set in.

Dean's Kidney Pills will do this.
Here is Portsmouth testimony to prove it.

Mrs. C. W. Ham, 130 State street, Portsmouth, N. H., says: "I had my first experience with Dean's Kidney Pills about three years ago. At that time I was suffering from backache and a lameness across my loins and I knew that my kidneys were diseased. I resolved to try Dean's Kidney Pills and purchased a supply at Philbrick's Drug store. This remedy checked the backache and relieved the lameness in my loins. I have taken Dean's Kidney Pills on several occasions since then, and they have always given me prompt relief. I know of many other persons who have tried them with the same good results."

MILLIONAIRE IS INDICTED FOR MURDER

KILLED A WOMAN WHILE RUNN-ING AN AUTOMOBILE, AND THEN FLED.

New York, Oct. 1.—Edward T. Rosenheimer, the Pelham millionaire who ran down and killed Miss Grace Hough on the night of Aug. 18 when speeding his automobile on Pelham parkway, was indicted by the grand jury Friday for murder in the first degree. The indictment was handed up to Judge Rosalsky in part 1 of general sessions Friday afternoon by foreman Leavast of the grand jury.

When he had received the indictment Judge Rosalsky ordered Rosenheimer's counsel to produce him in court this afternoon. James W. Osborne, Rosenheimer's lawyer, was at once telephoned to and promised to bring his client to court. The millionaire was released by coroner Schwammeier in $23,000 bail after a coroner's jury had declared him guilty of the slaying of Miss Hough.

The tragedy occurred on a dark night when Miss Hough was driving with a young man named George Veiter and a chum, Miss Anna McCabe, both of the Bronx, in a light buggy. The Rosenheimer automobile came up from behind at high speed and crashed into the buggy, shattering the vehicle and hurling its occupants upon the road. Miss Hough was killed instantly and Veiter and Miss McCabe were badly injured.

Miss McCabe was released from the Lebanon hospital Thursday when she came down to the district attorney's office on crutches and testified before the grand jury.

Miss Hough was a daughter of ex-policeman George Hough, whose home is at 131st street and Bathgate avenue.

According to the testimony produced for the first time before the grand jury, Rosenheimer not only offered no aid to the occupants of the buggy, but made every effort to escape from the scene and conceal the evidence of the collision. He stopped only an instant to pick up a shattered wheel of the buggy, which was later found hidden in the woods, two miles from the site of the accident.

The police located Rosenheimer through the aid of a man who had taken the number of the Rosenheimer car as it fled. There were two men, attendants of the young millionaire, in the automobile with him, but the grand jury dismissed the charge against them.

THOMPSON INDICTED

Dartmouth Graduate Accused of Death of Girl.

San Francisco, Oct. 1.—Robert Thompson, formerly of Boston, alias "Dr. James E. Grant," was indicted on Friday for the death of Eva C. Swan, the young school teacher and stenographer who succumbed following a criminal operation and whose body was buried in the basement of an old house. Murder is the charge of the grand jury.

The principal witness was the nurse Marie Masserschmidt, who testified she was in the room when the Swan girl was given an anesthetic and had prepared the instruments for the operation.

Good roads are a big asset to any city and this is especially so to Portsmouth, the half way station between Boston and the White mountains.

$34,000 FOR DOCTORS' BILLS

THIS WAS THE AMOUNT CHARGED
ED GAYNOR FOR TREATMENT
AFTER SHOOTING.

New York, Oct. 1.—The physicians' bills for treatment given Mayor Gaynor while he was a patient at St. Mary's hospital, Hoboken, after the shooting, amount to $34,000. Dr. W. J. Arlitz, one of the physicians who attended the mayor, said that the bills would be sent to the mayor, but only upon a request from him. Dr. Arlitz denied the physicians had for one moment considered they would be paid by the city of New York.

It was suggested that the amount was excessive, but it was pointed out that the bills for medical attendance upon President McKinley had amounted to $45,000, although the executive had been in the hospital only a week. Dr. Arlitz, questioned about the rumor to the effect that there had been a conference of the physicians to determine the amount to be charged to the mayor for services, made an absolute denial. He pointed out that most of the physicians concerned were away and had been since the mayor was removed from the hospital. The U. S. government, by a special act of congress, paid the $45,000 McKinley doctor bill.

STORM ON THE SUN

Spots Appear and Disappear, Showing Big Disturbance of Some Sort.

Santa Clara, Calif., Oct. 1.—An extraordinary occurrence was observed on the sun Thursday, announced Rev. J. S. Rickard of the Santa Clara college observatory, who gave out last night the following statement:

"A group of spots on the solar axis at 10:30 a. m. gathered in one solid spot, visible on a negative taken at 3:30 p. m., but which was soon broken up into fragments on a negative taken at 4:30. It is very seldom that such rapid fragmentation occurs."

NAVY ESTIMATES CUT NEARLY $4,000,000

Total for Next Year Set at $132,000, 000—Two Battleships and Two Colliers Provided For.

Estimates for the navy, which will be submitted to Congress on the first day of the session, and which were approved by President Taft at the meeting of the cabinet Friday are approximately $132,000,000. This is nearly $4,000,000 less than the appropriations made by the last session, and it shows the degree of economy which is being practiced by the present Administration. As announced by Secretary Meyer, the building program for the next year provides for two battleships and two colliers.

The President and General Wood,

National bank notes in every city will be examined immediately by secret service men to determine how extensive the fraud has been. The fact that the first was made on a bank in the west and appeared simultaneously with another on a bank in the east convinces Chief Wilkie that the plans of the counterfeitors have been laid and that the extent of their ramifications is problematical. The character of the engraving on the notes testifies that they have a very complete plant.

chief of staff, continued their examination of the War Department estimates for the appropriation for the next fiscal year, and further reduced the $10,000,000 also already announced in the total as compared with the current appropriation were determined upon. The revision estimates provide for $2,000,000 for immediate use in the fortification of the Panama Canal, and it is probable that before the work is completed appropriations of approximately $20,000,000 altogether will be needed.

LOOK AT YOUR $10.00 BILLS

COUNTERFEITING OF THIS DE-NOMINATION BEING EXTENSIVELY CARRIED OUT.

Washington, Oct. 1.—The secret service has unearthed what appears to be an extensive attempt to counterfeit national bank notes. Notes of the same denomination and issue as were found Thursday on the Pasadena (Calif.) national bank were discovered Friday issued on the First national bank of Williamsport, Penn.

Chief Wilkie is convinced that all the bills are being made by the same gang and has rushed orders by telegraph to every secret service man in the country to spread the dragnet.

It was also discovered today that the bogus $10 bill on the Pasadena bank being floated, represents two issues instead of one as first reported. The Williamsport counterfeit is of a higher degree of perfection than those on the Pasadena bank, which were pronounced by the secret service men to be the best they had seen in recent years. The defect which marked the first one, such as the bad break over the left shoulder in the portrait of McKinley, are absent in the notes discovered Friday. Two notes of the Williamsport issue have been brought to headquarters in Washington.

National bank notes in every city will be examined immediately by secret service men to determine how extensive the fraud has been. The fact

THEATRICAL TOPICS

Thomas A. Wise in "A Gentleman From Mississippi"

Rarely indeed have Portsmouth playgoers been permitted to watch a performance in which every role is enacted in such an eminently satisfactory manner as will be the case when Thomas A. Wise and his supporting company will be seen in "A and everything will be new and fresh, a company that is said to be fully as good if not superior to any that have appeared in the opeetta; for the charm of "The Merry Widow" still grips the theatregoer as strong and as steadfast as at any time since the original presentation, and Mr. Savage is far too astute to cheapen the cast of production in any way.

The company that is to present the alluring work in this city is headed by Gertrude Hutchison, who is duplicating on tour the success she made last season.

The Prince Danilo is again sung and danced by George Damrel, who has appeared in the New York and Chicago companies as well as having to his credit the honor of heading the big trans-continental company that went on continuous tour of ninety weeks in the middle and far west. However, "The Merry Widow" is so strong that its success depends on no star or single cast of players. All the principals to be seen here have been accorded their need of praise in the metropolitan companies, and the complimentary notices given in the newspapers during the current tour compel one to believe that this company is the equal of any that has left New York bearing the name of Henry W. Savage.

A grand opera orchestra accompanies this organization and the ears of the theatre goer will again be charmed with the haunting strains of the "Villa" song, "Love in my Heart," "Guy Maxim," not to make mention of the world's famous waltz—real music played by real musicians. The opportunity of hearing this wonderful opeetta will be regarded in all cities where this splendid company appears as affording the most entrancing musical treat of the year.

STEALING MONEY OUT OF MAIL

THOMAS A. WISE,
As Senator Langdon in "A Gentleman From Mississippi."

LOCAL BOTTLING CONCERN

THE LOSERS—POSTOFFICE IN-SPECTORS MAKING AN INVESTIGATION.

Gentleman from Mississippi" at Music Hall next Tuesday night. Such a performance as will be given by William A. Brady's original company in support of his jolly star, Thomas A. Wise as Senator Langdon, would carry even a poor play to success, and when material of such inherent strength and such absorbing interest as is in "A Gentleman from Mississippi" is placed at the disposal of Mr. Wise and a company of such gifted players, the result is exceptional. "A Gentleman from Mississippi" will be presented here exactly as it was seen for thirteen months in New York and for sixteen consecutive weeks at the Park Theatre, Boston, last season.

"The Merry Widow" Tonight

The theatrical attraction that stands at the head of all musical offerings in this company, is Henry W. Savage's superb production of "The Merry Widow," which will be presented at Music Hall tonight. The same high class standard is to be observed.

Postoffice Inspector Stone is making an investigation of the loss of money from the mail of several of the local bottling concerns.

For some time past these concerns namely Andrew O. Caswell, the Portsmouth Distributing company, Daniel F. Collins and others, have been receiving letters from which the enclosed cash had been removed. The sums were small, varying from fifty cents to $7, and with two exceptions were all from Maine.

So far the inspectors have been unable to locate the thieves although every effort has been made, but it has resulted in stopping the stealing.

The brick yards are clearing up their yards in preparation for closing for the winter months.

WANT REDRESS

CORRESPONDENTS ATTACKED BY BERLIN POLICE DURING RIOTS
ASK FOR EXPLANATION.

Berlin, Oct. 1.—American Ambassador Hill, acting upon instruction from the state department at Washington, called at the Foreign office today and requested an inquiry into the affair and proper official redress for the wanton assault made by the police upon Frederick W. Wile, the correspondent of the New York Times, during the coal strike last Saturday night. In company with the correspondents of the Reuter Telegram company, the New York World and the New York Sun, Mr. Wile, engaged in his duties, was watching the police and rioters from a motor car, when the newspaper party was set upon by the police and painfully injured. Seemingly without provocation, the police charged with sabres, and the newsmen were saved from further injury only by flight to the nearest first aid station. R. Seymour, the British chargé d'affaires, has received sympathetically, a protest from the three other newspaper men, who are British subjects. He now awaits instructions from London. Mr. Seymour and Dr. Hill conferred on the matter this afternoon.

It is assumed that the Foreign Office will act promptly. Herr von Jagow, president of the Berlin police, appears to take a cynical view of the affair. Nevertheless it is plain that the correspondents were attacked ruthlessly. While one of the four called out that they were representatives of the press, another held up in plain view of their assailants a police pass showing that their presence on the scene was authorized.

The only explanation that Von Jagow has offered is that the police acted upon the order of some unknown bystander, a sort of "Captain Coenepick." Americans will remember "Captain Coenepick," or properly William Voigt, as the German shoemaker who was deported from New York last spring after the authorities had discovered his record of ten years in jail. Four years ago Voigt, pretending to be a captain of the Grenadiers of the Guard, picked up a squad of German soldiers and leading them into Coenepick stole $1000 from the town hall.

CAUGHT BETWEEN CAR AND PLATFORM

Irving S. Lowell Badly Jammed at the Freight Depot--At Hospital on Dangerous List.

Irving S. Lowell, a checker employed at the Boston and Maine freight depot, was badly injured on Friday afternoon by being jammed between the freight house platform and a freight car.

Lowell was down between the platform and the rail, supposedly to pick up something, when the freight car was run in and he was caught and badly jammed. His cries for help attracted the attention of the other employees and the car was hauled out and Lowell released from his cramped quarters.

He was taken to the Cottage hospital where he was examined by Dr. J. J. Berry and was found to be suffering with five fractured ribs and a collar bone broken. The full extent of his injuries will not be known for a day or two, for his lungs may be injured. At the hospital today he is on the dangerous list.

Lowell is married and resides on Deer street.

ways come here and taken my medicine and never asked for a favor. Today I would like to be released. I have not been up against you for many days; give me a suspended sentence and I will never come back."

The court thought Mac was entitled to a "square deal," and gave him the opportunity to escape. He asked permission to bid farewell to his partner, Tay, which was very touching and he then bade farewell to Old Strawberry Bank.

John Connors, John Ryan and John Dwyer for brawl were fined $8.12 each.

POLICE COURT

Charles McLaughlin and Charles Tay, two cripples, were up on the boards today for soaking up the boose on Friday and they both had a story for the court. Tay gives Dover credit for his home when he is home and was good and ugly when he was hauled off the pine board to face the tribunal this morning. He admitted he was drunk, but when the police accused him of begging, his dignity was aroused, and he would not stand for any report that a Dover man was ever known to beg. He wanted to do all the talking and it was some time before the court could get a word in relative to the case. When the court did speak, Charley was ordered up the line for 6 months.

McLaughlin was just the opposite from his chum and had a smile that would charm a Teddy Bear. Mac said guilty, and addressed the court as follows: "Your Honor, I have al-

YORK CONSTABLE TO GET NICHOLS

Fugitive is To Be Brought Back
From Chicago

York, Oct. 1.—Grant Duff, a constable of this town, left on Friday for Chicago armed with the necessary legal papers to bring William G. Nichols, who was treasured in the Windy City, back to York county, to face charges of assault on his wife, Bella Nichols of York, breaking and entering at York Beach, and also for carrying concealed weapons. Nichols was indicted by the grand jury of the supreme court now in session at Alfred, on the above charges.

Nichols is the son of William S. Nichols, who was ordered to serve four months in Alfred jail on a charge of assault in the supreme court at Alfred. The assault is claimed to have been committed on the wife of the man arrested in Chicago, at York, September 12. Both father and son, it is claimed, abused the woman frightfully.

After the assault, the son, William G. Nichols, disappeared from York and was not heard from again until the story was read in Thursday's Portsmouth Herald telling about his arrest in Chicago. While in custody Nichols made a statement in which he said he was tired of being bad and said he had been yearning day and night for his little wife and children. He told the Chicago officers that he was supposed to be dead at home (York Beach). He confessed to breaking and entering at York Beach but did not mention that he was wanted at home for assaulting his wife.

The Chicago authorities have been notified to hold Nichols until Constable Duff arrives, and deliver the man to him. It is at the request of County Attorney Hobbs that the man will be brought back to York county.
